S i r,

I am directed to state that the Inspector General of Prisons in Mysore has brought to notice that Magistrates who remand under-trial prisoners to jails do not note in the warrants the offence of which the prisoners are accused and that consequently column 14 of the Register of under-trial prisoners is invariably left blank and requests the issue of instructions to the Magistrates for supply of the necessary information in the remand warrants.

Criminal Form No.37 prescribed by the Rule of Practice No.72 dated 1st February 1904 does not provide for the supply of the information and it is considered necessary to revise the form on the basis of the one in use in Madras, so that the required information may be furnished by the Magistrates in the warrants of remand.

I am to request that the Government may be pleased to accord their sanction to the issue of the enclosed corrigendum to Rule of Practice 72 revising the form of remand warrants.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

REGISTRAR.
